

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1903.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have made arrangements with the publisher of the Chicago Weekly News which enable us to offer that paper and The Breckenridge News for sale at a special price.

For one subscription price we thus furnish our subscribers with two papers—a metropolitan and a home weekly. By this arrangement our readers are placed in constant touch of the whole situation. All events of interest, local, national and foreign will be presented, completely and promptly, by the one or the other of these publications. The single feature of all fast trustworthy Chicago market quotations will be worth to many of our readers, the entire subscription price.

To those who are not familiar with the character of the Chicago News, we would say it is the best representative of independent journalism in the west. The Weekly News is a large eight-column daily, "team talk" of telegraph has general news, short and long, and on the topics of the day, written in a familiar, yet incisive style, and all its departments are so arranged as to give facts in few words, without the verbiage and line writing which render so many of the large metropolitan papers "unreadable to the flock." Facts, not words, appear to be its motto.

The Chicago Weekly News will be sent, postpaid, for one year to every one of our subscribers who pays his subscription account in full to date and one year in advance.

This means just what it says—the Chicago Weekly News one year for nothing send in your subscriptions.
